

Quarterly Issues Programming Report

89.9 KQAC-FM Portland; 88.1 KQOC Gleneden Beach; 88.1 KQHR The Dalles and Hood River; 90.3 KSLC HD-2 McMinnville; Corvallis 95.7; www.allclassical.org

Reporting Period: October 1, 2017 to December 31, 2017

Creation date: January 10, 2018 Placed in Public File on: January 10, 2018

Beyond word of mouth, general press coverage, or standard marketing and promotion, the stations of All Classical Portland address issues of cultural vitality, arts community viability, the significance of music as it relates to the human experience, health and education by dedicating significant airtime to conversations and performance to these community initiatives. These unique opportunities serve to enlighten a diverse audience within a broad region while deepening relationships with community partner organizations.

On Deck with Young Musician: Programs aired during the reporting period covered youth issues as detailed below.

December 9, 2017

On Deck with Elora Ghosh

Elora Ghosh began singing Indian classical music at a very young age, and then migrated to "Western" music. Now, as a 16-year old high school junior, she plays violin in the Portland Youth Philharmonic and she sings in the Pacific Youth Choir. She is also passionate about volunteering, as well as being a force of positive energy.

December 2, 2017

On Deck with Griffin Barbieri

16-year old high school junior Griffin Barbieri likes to stand out... and he was initially drawn to the tuba because it is big and flashy. But we'll hear him tell us that the key to being a successful tuba player in the Metropolitan Youth Symphony is learning how to blend in.

November 25, 2017

On Deck with Kai Bryngelson

Kai Bryngelson is a 15-year old violinist who –last year, at the age of 14– left his home and parents in Patagonia to further his musical education in Portland. He's now studying with Oregon Symphony violinist Vali Phillips and is co-concertmaster of the Portland Youth Philharmonic.

November 18, 2017

On Deck with Hailey Kang

Hailey Kang is a 15-year old cellist who plays with her orchestra at Tualatin High School, and she has also been a member of the Metropolitan Youth Symphony for 7 years. Hailey has a competitive drive, and it has paid off: she has won concerto competitions with the Jewish Community Orchestra, the Metropolitan Youth Symphony, and she will be performing as soloist with the Oregon Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra in December.

November 4, 2017

On Deck with Noah Kurzenhauser

Noah Kurzenhauser is a 17-year old singer (with the Pacific Youth Choir) and pianist whose goal in life is to enter politics. He has already interned with a Representative in the Oregon State Legislature, and is planning to pursue degrees in Political Science and Public Policy.

October 21, 2017

On Deck with Jude Dow-Hygelund

Jude Dow-Hygelund is a 12-year old pianist from Junction City, Oregon. Christa met him over the summer at YMA: Young Musicians and Artists. Jude was one of the winners of that camp's concerto competition, which gave him the honor of performing as soloist with the YMA Orchestra.

October 14, 2017

On Deck with Mariana Ramirez Godinez

Mariana Ramirez Godinez is an 18-year old singer and violinist. Christa met her over the summer at YMA: Young Musicians and Artists, a summer camp at Willamette University. Mariana was a counselor there, and a member of the YMA Choir. Mariana loves classical music, but her involvement with it is due largely to her participation in a mariachi band.

All Classical Portland Gratitude Line

November 23, 2017

All Classical Portland Listeners were invited to share their own stories of gratitude in the context of how All Classical's service is a vital part of their support system in dealing with issues such as hospice care, death, mental illness, housing issues, education and health concerns. The program featured listeners' own voices in recorded messages, expressing gratitude for the programming on All Classical as it helps them to cope with issues they face daily. Sharing their personal stories provided an outlet for those who contributed, as well as a meaningful reminder to the community at large of the varied issues our fellow Portlanders wrestle with.

Signature

Suzanne Nance, Chief Executive Officer

Date

January 10, 2018